HOW TO USE THIS FORM

1. Fill it in.
   Type into the shaded fields or print the form and use blue or black ink. Do not sign yet.

2. Sign in front of a Florida notary.
   Sign only when the notary is watching — in person or by online notarization. Bring a current, government-issued photo ID.

3. The notary completes the certificate.
   The notary fills in the certificate, signs and applies the seal. Keep the certificate in English — Florida apostilles are issued on English-language notarial certificates.

4. Get the apostille.
   For Hague Convention countries, the Florida Department of State issues an apostille. For non-Hague countries, Florida issues an authentication before consular legalization.

5. Check translation rules.
   Some countries also require a certified translation of the document and/or the apostille. Ask the receiving authority before you send it.

- Many countries only accept proof of single status issued within the last 3–6 months. Get the apostille shortly before you need to submit it.
- Some civil registries also require an apostilled birth certificate or divorce decree. Check the requirement list of the country where you will marry.
